

Abstract

In the paper questions of uniqueness and stability of inverse problems on definition of unknown coefficients at higher derivatives of a system of parabolic equations are studied. The found coefficients depend either on spatial variables or on time. Additional conditions are specified in nonlocally- integral forms.