Abstract

Bilateral estimates of the best uniform approximation of functions on a multivariate cube by arbitrary products of fewer number variable functions are established in the paper. In particular, one bilateral estimate announced in [2] will be proved. Here we'll use exact annihilator of a class of products of fewer number variable functions constructed in [3].