

TEMPERATURE DISTRIBUTION IN MULTI-LAYER INFINITE CYLINDER

Abstract

The problem on temperature distribution in multi-layer cylinder of infinite length in uniform medium on whose interior surface the temperature in the form of function on time is hold.

The recursive relations allowing to determine temperature in each layer and uniform medium are obtained. Inversion of the obtained expression is made by means of asymptotic representations of Bessel functions.