

ON THE TORSION OF A PARTIALLY-CORRODED BAR

Abstract

In this paper we consider the torsion of a partially-corroded bar. Stress-strained state of the bar is defined assuming that the thickness and length of the corroded part change at time. Boundary values of operation time are defined from the condition of existence of ultimate state.