

Abstract

Free oscillations of a spheric inclusion containing suspended mass situated in elastic medium are investigated. It is supposed, that on a surface of contact there holds free sliding of elastic environment with respect to inclusion. Eigen frequencies of oscillations are defined at some values of parameters of the system.