

Abstract

The questions of correctness of the inverse problem on determination of the unknown coefficient for higher derivatives of a divergent type quasilinear parabolic equation in multivariate domain are investigated in the paper. Uniqueness theorem and estimation of stability of the solution is proved.