Abstract

In this work the first boundary value problem is considered for second order degenerate elliptic-parabolic equation with, generally speaking, discontinuous coefficients.

The matrix of senior coefficients satisfies the parabolic Cordes condition with respect to space variables. The existence and smoothness of solution is investigated for the case when the boundary contains the points of characteristic direction.