

Abstract

In this paper we consider queuing system with three terminals. Indices of the system – mean waiting time and mean waiting cost have been found. Some class of controls in this system is considered. Uniqueness and existence conditions and expression of optimal control which minimize the mean waiting cost have been found. Some mathematical calculations are given.