Abstract

In the paper we consider a system of exponents with complex-valued coefficients whose arguments are measurable functions. Paley type theorem for these systems is proved under definite conditions on coefficients.