

Abstract

In the paper Riemann's distribution of a boundary value problem is constructed for a fourth order hyperbolic equation with dominant mixed derivative with initial and non-local boundary conditions. It is shown that an operator generated by the given problem realizes homeomorphism between appropriate Banach spaces.